FIRST CIRCUS OF THE YEAR ON MAY 1ST

A DAY'S WORK FOR THE ADVANCE AGENT WHO SIGNS 14 CONTRACTS

Al. G. Barnes' big four ring wild animal circus well remembered here for its splendid exhibits in the past is trouping this way. The two big trains containing 1200 performing animals and 600 people, and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of equipment will arrive in Ukiah on Thursday, May 1, and give two exhibits here beginning with a big two mile long parade in the morning.

First of the advance men for the show to arrive is Mr. F. A. Cassiday, contract agent whose duty it is to look after supplies necessary for putting the big show "over." He signed up 14 contracts, including food stuffs for men and beasts, and to provide eating places for three sets of billposters who will soon be on the ground covering every available place with red, blue and yellow posters, and decorating the countryside that can be reached by rail and automobile.

To feed the hungry billposters, the agent contracted for meals at 50 cents apiece. Mr. Cassidy contracted for several tons of hay; more than 2000 pounds of oats, several tons of straw for bedding the animals and bran for the mush eating animals. A supply of 350 loaves of bread was contracted and water supply for the show arranged for. Contracts were placed with the city billposter for special stands and the show folks do the work. Livery rigs and autos for the billposters were provided and all told the showman signed 14 contracts in one day and counted it a fairly good day's work. He signed up for the circus lot, city license, water, livery, hotels, billboard space, newspaper advertising, bread, food for animals and people, provided for the unloading and loading of the show, and laid out the route from the railroad to the show grounds.

According to the circus man, the A. G. Barnes show will spend more than $1400 in Ukiah for supplies of various kinds which is a goodly amount for an animal show. The Barnes Circus is primarily an animal circus. The people are there only as aides in putting the educated animals through their paces. Each animal is scientifically educated to do some skilled circus feat. There are both human and animal clowns—big spectacles—and the usually or rather the unusually big street parade—for Al. G. Barnes shows all open dens of wild animals in the parade and has real music along with the jazz bands.

Farm Advisor Myszka, who returned recently from the Farm Advisors' conference, made a number of notes during the trip. In the belief that his account may prove of much interest not alone to the members of the farm bureau but to others as well, we give it herewith:

Two hundred directors of California Farm Bureaus assembled at Hotel Shattuck, Tuesday, March 25th. A night meeting was held at the University in the Agricultural Hall. President Benjamin Ide Wheeler gave a short address of welcome. He mentioned the strengh of the nation was measured by the strength of the rural home. The evening's address was made by Dean Hunt on agricultural reconstruction in England and France. Silent lecture through lantern slides followed by a verbal lecture from the Dean was given. The lecture was published in the local county papers.

Wednesday Morning, Mar. 26th.

Meeting was held in the Agricultural Hall. Dean Hunt presiding.

Roll call of the counties. Most excellent.

Address by W. A. Lloyd, U. S. D. A., in charge of extension work in Northern and Western States was given, on the relation of the County Farm Advisor to the Farm Bureau and the farmer. Stated that the government commandeered the activities of the Farm Bureau during the war to a certain extent. But that now the Farm Bureaus are again placed on pre-war footing a self-determining body. Stated that he had absolute confidence in the conservative judgment of the farmer, and knew that the Farm Bureaus could not go wrong under their direction. The address was received most heartily. Mr. Lloyd made the traveling tour with the directors.

An address on "Function of the Farm Bureau" to be placed on record, was read by Prof. Crocheron, which was received enthusiastically. The directors voted that a written copy be sent to every Farm Bureau member in the State of California, and was carried.

The project on the "Community Program of Work" was read by Rubel, and was adopted.

12:00 p. m.—Luncheon.

1 p. m.—47 machines carrying three directors from every county but two and the State and Federal leaders and the Farm Advisors left Berkeley for Santa Cruz. Passed through the garden section of Alameda and Santa Clara counties, and through the most scenic portion of Santa Cruz county. Arrived at Santa Cruz at 5 p. m. Inspected modern poultry farm and bee demonstrations and returned to Santa Cruz at 6 p. m. 8 p. m. attended Farm Center meeting in the new high school building (Value $200,000). Center meeting was given over to the discussion of the findings in poultry rearing, by two practical poultrymen. The Farm Bureau meetings in Santa Cruz are largely handled in this way. A talk by the Farm Advisor on the activities of the County Farm Advisor was given. Mention was made that formerly a certain amount of apathy existed between the business men and the farm bureau organization.

These men, however, began to realize the value of the farmer's organization in the various war drives. The farmers were almost always first in subscribing their quota and was done almost simultaneously. The business men and bankers are some of the principal Farm Bureau leaders now. It was due to these men that a successful reception was given to the visiting directors. Songs and yells were entered into freely by all present. Comic views were presented on the scren, taken during the day's drive. The high school orchestra furnished the music, and a large crowd of visitors were present. Santa Cruz County is an important berry section. One million dollars worth of logan berry juice is produced annually there. An acre yield being eight to ten thousand pounds, value being three to five and one-half cents per pound.

Thursday, March 27th.

6:30: Rising Call.

Left Santa Cruz for Salinas. Passed through strawberry district and hog and sheep pastureing in orchards on cover crops.

8:45—Arrived at Carl Roger's orchard. Inspected tree pruning surgery. Apple trees absent from fruiting spurs on trunks are being redeveloped through the use of water sprouts. In July, when the water sprouts are somewhat slow in growth the terminal bud is pinched off. This checks their growth. These sprouts are then cut back to three buds in the fall. Second year fruiting wood is developed.

The use of Bordeaux paste for tree wounds was highly recommended by Mr. Rogers. It was found that where paint was used to seal the wounds so that cell sap accumulated near the cut. The water is favorable to the development of disease and rot as shown in many cases. Bordeaux paste allows it to escape and is fungicidal. Its lasting properties are good. Experiments with copper nails driven in the wounds is being carried on. The theory being that the free copper given off continuously kills fungus growth.

The bee pollenation experiment is carried on with different trees, to ascertain the value of bees as pollenators. Individual trees are screened separately in pairs of two varieties with mosquito bar and bee hives placed therein. Trees for checking are screened to exclude bees and other insects. After the meeting, several boxes of Newtown Pippins were conveniently placed for self-help. Many of the directors provided themselves with an entire box for the trip.

9:30—Arrived at City Theatre at Watsonville. Enthusiastic talks by bankers and others were given. Watsonville maintains a separate Farm Bureau office. Over four million boxes of apples are harvested annually in the Pajaro Valley, valued at three and one-half million dollars. All apples are conserved. Poor apples are made into cider and vinegar and pomace, ued to subjugate morning glory. The county also grows in an extensive way, strawberries, spuds and beans. Large pears are grown here. Santa Cruz county ranks second in poultry production.

10:30—Elkhorn Ayreshire. Short talk on dairy breeds by Prof. True, and some of the best stock was exhibited. Mrs. Myers served delicious Swiss cheese sandwiches and whole milk. 12:00 M. Arrived at Salinas, where barbecue had been provided for members of conference. 1 p. m. left for Paso Robles, one hundred miles. Visited Smith Hughes Industrial School at Gonzales. Eight units of small open top buildings were erected, specializes in agriculture, domestic science, and general business education. Seventy-five pupils in attendance. Cost of plant, $8000 Here a talk was given on county and County Farm Bureau work by the Farm Advisor. Left for Paso Robles. Held up on way at Salinas bridge. Arrived one hour late. Headquarters Paso Robles Hotel. Meeting held at Paso Robles. Mendocino county delegates left for San Luis Obispo and joined the tour next morning.

Friday, March 28th.

Left Paso Robles for Santa Maria. Arrived at Atascadero. Inspecter dehydrating plant. Made a drive through the colony. Moving pictures were taken of the conference by the colony. Many Farm Bureau delegates fear that this would be used in promoting the Atascadero activities. 10:30 a. m. arrived at San Luis Obispo. Talks by San Luis Obispo farm advisor and local men. San Luis Obispo has had county farm bureau for four years but no farm advisor. Left for Santa Barbara. Arrived 5:45 p. m. Meeting was held at Potter Hotel, Santa Barbara after dinner. Address of welcome was made by the Horticultural Commissioner. Consideration was given the federation of various Farm Bureaus into a state organization. The concensus of opinion was that the State organization should be formed. Additions to the committee were appointed to draft a state constitution. Stayed over night at Santa Barbara.

Saturday, March 28th.

6:30 rising call. Left Santa Barbara for Ventura. 9:20 arrived at Ventura High school. Talk on activities of Ventura Farm Bureau by farm advisor. County badges were presented. 10:00 left for Ojai, through fertile valley of Ojai, where walnuts and citrus are grown extensively. Inspected farm bureau fire fighting apparatus at Ojai. Shovels, forks, wire push brush, water cans and fire extinguishers comprises the fire fighting tools. Left for Santa Paula.

Inspected Citrus Association packing house. Construction of tile and wood. Cost $108,000. Capacity average 225 cars. Daily output one to three cars. Seventy-six members, representing one thousand five hundred acres of lemons. Stopped at Santa Paula. Free dinner served by ladies of Methodist church. Collection was taken up for church aid. Over $100 collected. Left Santa Paula for ranch of Limoneira, which has largest single planting in the world.

Manager C. C. Teague. 900 acres of lemons, 250 acres of walnuts, 400 acres of lima beans, five tractors, 110 mules, 200 acres of grain hay, 350 farm employees. Five dormitories, 155 Mexican houses, 25 houses for married white men. Packing house for lemons and walnuts, 135,420 square feet floor space. Average capacity, 200 cars. Daily output three cars. Yearly output 500 cars of lemons, 150 tons walnuts. Acre yield of lemons, one car or 350 boxes. Average price seven dollars per box. About 50 per cent consumed in production and handling. Land valued at $3300 per acre. Free lemonade by Japanese maidens. Announcement was made that Ventura Farm Advisor was made manager for the new lima bean growers association.

Left packing house, passed through orchards and Mexican camps, going to Saticoy. Storage capacity 700 tons, daily output 45 tons. Last year's output 1,940 tons. Value two million dollars. 75 members representing 1,800 acres of walnuts. Left for Oxnard.

Passed through town and around factory of American Beet Sugar Co. and inspected Mexican labor quarters of beet sugar factory covering 100 acres. Second largest in the world. Capacity 3000 tons of beets per day. Output 500,000 sacks yearly. By-products, beet pulp, 7,150 tons, potash 1000 tons. Number of employees during bearing season, 700. 20 houses for white employees. 67 houses for Mexican employees. One club house. 36 adobe houses, four rooms each. Adobe bricks and houses made by Mexican laborers cost $500. Considerable attention is given to sanitation. Mexican labor handled in this manner has been absolutely satisfactory. Conference left for Wilbur Stiles ranch.

230 acres all under irrigation. 212 acres lima beans. Ten acres lemons. Eight acres alfalfa. Ranch brought interest in value of $1000 per acre. Average yield 2,527 sacks per acre of beans. Farmed to beans only for thirty years. Produces 80 per cent more now than twenty years ago, due to better methods, tools and irrigation. Irrigation system cost $14,000. Well 700 feet deep. All gravity flow except 100 feet. Progressive demonstration of preparation seed bed was inspected in yard, consisted of manure spreader, chisel, engine harrow, roller, spring tooth, cultivator, cyclone, light harrow, planter and bean cutter. Land is plowed twelve to fourteen inches deep every other year. Years not plowed, chizel is used, and an ideal seed bed is in this manner prepared.

Arrived at Los Angeles 5:30 p. m.

OFFSHORE LUMBER BUSINESS BEGINING TO PICK UP

FORT BRAGG, April 9.—With the sailing of the steam schooner, Bee, for Peru, Monday evening with a cargo of ties and the arrival of the motor ship Lassen today for a cargo of lumber consigned to Honolulu, it appears that the offshore redwood lumber business has started to pick up since the war.

The Bee's cargo of 600,000 feet of redwood ties will be dispatched at Callao, Peru, and will be used for railroad construction.

Several hundred thousand feet of mixed redwood lumber will be loaded by the Lassen for general building purposes in Honolulu.

The scarcity of bottoms and the extreme high freight rates practically did away with all offshore business during the war.

The present high rate and the slump in the domestic lumber trade is chiefly responsible for quite a number of the coast steam schooners entering the offshore trade.

With the present rate of $30 per thousand to Peru, the cost of transporting the Bee's cargo of ties will amount to $18,000, which is understood to be in excess of the value of the cargo. In normal times the rate to this point was from $16 to $20.

It will also cost $11,800 to land the Lassen's cargo in Honolulu. Prior to the war the same cargo could have been shipped for $4,200.

It is the general opinion that with the releasing of more ships for general tradep urposes and the reducing of the freight rate, the offshore lumber business will continue to improve, especially as the stock in Honolulu and Australian yards is reported run down.

COMPTCHE NEWS

(Mendocino Beacon.)

COMPTCHE, April 8.—The home of Gustave Samuelson burnt down last Tuesday. The fire started from a defective chimney. Mr. E. C. Oppenlander and Mr. Davis got there just in time to save the furniture.

An auto accident occurred in front of Mr. J. C. Ottoson's home Wednesday morning. A hysterical "Lizzy" turned over on its side in the middle of the road. There was a lady and a man in the machine. They both escaped injury.

Frank E. Chance, who is employed at the State Hospital in Ukiah, is visiting his relatives at Comptche this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowthian and family departed the latter part of last week for their old home in Arizona, where they intend to make their home permanently.

Social and Club Activities

It is interesting to observe how certain expressions are symbolical of certain seasons. For instance one always connects peace and good-will with the merry Christmas season while the harvest time is expressed in generosity and thankfulness. The muscles of the throat will tighten with joyous fervor when "My Country 'Tis of Thee" reverberates from countless voices on Independence Day but gladdness is the expression of the Easter season. It is the glad resurrection time of the year when flowers appear, as if by magic, from the brown earth and bare branches clothe themselves in snowy bloom or delicate green of new leaves. Truly it is the resurrection time of all the world and, as nature casts off the dead and forgotten things of yesterday, so we should cast off pettiness and all the things that make for human misunderstanding, for as Rudyard Kipling has so aptly put it "we are all brothers under the skin" and pettiness should have as little place in our scheme of things as dead leaves have in the spring time if we are to commemorate with glad hearts, the re-birth of . vior of the world.

TIME HONORED CUSTOMS WILL BE OBSERVED

According to a time honored custom the various Sabbath Schools of the community will arrange Easter parties for the children on next Saturday and as usual the principal event will be an Easter egg hunt. The superintendent and teachers of each school will be in charge and the children will be further entertained with games and music and dainty refreshments. Mrs. Mayme Taylor, superintendent of the primary department of the M. E. Church South is planning a garden party that will include a hunt about the grounds of the church property and the children of the Presbyterian Sabbath School will be similarly entertained. On Friday evening the children of St. John's church together with their teachers are staging the Easter pageant, "The Childrens' Crusade" in the church auditorium. It is a centenary pageant and between forty and fifty children will participate. The scenery and costuming will be extremely effective and the meeting is open to the general public. The participants have practiced long and faithfully for the event and it promises to be unusual and impressive. Other churches are planning excursions to Todd's grove where a picnic and egg hunt will be held.

A JUVENILE PARTY

Buddie Boring, small lad of the primary department of the local elementary school, is a strong exponent of the community spirit as the following will testify. The little fellow had a birthday last Thursday and insisted that all of his school mates be invited to the party that would celebrate the event. party that would celebrate the event. Naturally no private home would accommodate the guests and so Mrs. Boring hit upon the happy plan of sending the birthday goodies to the school immediately after the afternoon session where the teacher, Miss Norgard, assisted in serving the entire class with ices, cakes and candy after which games and romping were enjoyed in the grounds until four o'clock. It was a thoroughly happy time for all the children and Buddie sounded a note in community spirit that promises to be repeated by other small boys and girls when their birthday anniversary rolls around.

A SURPRISE PARTY AND HOUSE WARMING

Thirty-five of the ladies of St. John's M. E. Church planned and carried out most successfully a surprise party in honor of one of their members, Mrs. M. J. Sanford, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford have but recently completed the erection of a fine new home on their ranch west of this city and the ladies made the occasion a house warming. An interesting program of readings and music was enjoyed and a basket luncheon was served in the pretty new dining room. The guests motored over for the occasion and the ride was an additional pleasure.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETING

The members of the Saturday Afternoon club listened to a program last Saturday afternoon at the F. T. Barker home in west Standley street that maintained the usual high standard of the club in things literary and musical. Community singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was first on the program over which the vice-president, Mrs. R. Thomas, presiding in the absence of Mrs. Louis Hildreth, president. Other entertaining features were a reading of "Love Poems", Sara Teasdale author, by Mrs. Edgar Dutton, who was chosen for this particular program feature because of the flexible qualities of her voice and her unusual understanding of things poetic.

Miss Catherine Thomas and Miss Alice Pettis gave two vocal duets that showed musical ability of a high order. Their selections were "I Know a Bank Whereon the Wild Thyme Grows" and "O, That We Two Were Maying." Both were redolent of the spring-time and so doubly enjoyable. Mrs. W. D. L. Held gave a thirty minute reading from the works of O. Henry. With her exceptional ability, Mrs. Held achieved new honors and her appreciative listeners attested their pleasure in prolonged applause. A telegram from the delegates to the Watsonville convention, Mrs. Hildreth, Mrs. J. L. Brown and Mrs. F. E. Rea, in which they expressed their regret at being absent from the meeting, was read during the program hour. The telegram also announced the fact that an invitation had been extended to the district to hold its next meeting in Ukiah, in April, 1920. The Barker home was decorated with artistic skill by Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Edgar Dutton, assistant hostess of the afternoon, in brilliant red tulips arranged in Japanese lily bowls. Guests of the afternoon included Mrs. Louis Hofman and Mrs. Moffitt and honorary members, Mrs. Katherine Allen and Mrs. J. W. Eversole.

SMALL LADS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Stanley and Joseph Rea, young sons of Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Rea, entertained twenty of their small friends at a charmingly arranged party on last Saturday afternoon at their home in west Standley street. The usual games that are childhood's delight were enjoyed and romping about the house and garden preceded the gay refreshment hour that was marked by an exceedingly effective decoration in which nursery rhymes and a pink and blue floral decoration played an unusual part. The cake and candy containers were decorated in nursery rhymes and hand decorated in pink and blue as was the table cloth and napkins. A low arrangement of for-get-me-nots was supplemented by streamers of pink ribbon and pretty favors added to the delight of the children among whom were John and Harriet Rowe, Virginia and Barbara Barker, Frances Rea, Martha Mannon, Felice Louise Hofman, Billie White, Katherine and Billie Held, James Smith, James Cleland, Elinor Donohoe, Anna and Roy Gillmore, Wakefield Taylor, Freddie McKensie, Irene Merck, Jeanette Alexander, Alice Ruth Young and Stanley and Joseph Rea.

FORMER RESIDENTS WARMLY GREETED

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Allen have been enjoying a brief visit in Ukiah the past few days and local friends have made the most of the opportunity and many delightful informal affairs have been arranged in their honor. The Allens have only recently returned from an eastern trip where Major Allen was called as a member of the medical corps of the U. S. Navy. They visited Washington, New York and Boston during their sojourn in the east. On Tuesday Dr. Allen returned to his post of duty but Mrs. Allen will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Clabe Bartlett for a few days. On next Monday evening Kingsley Chapter, O. E. S., of which Mrs. Allen is Past Worthy Matron, will give a reception in her honor following the official visit of the District Inspector. Owing to the official nature of the meeting the reception will be for the members only and both Mrs. Allen and the officers who served during her regime will be the guests of honor. The hall will be bright with many hued blossoms and a delightful supper will be served. On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Allen was a guest of the Saturday Afternoon Club of which she is an honorary member. During the years of her residence here Mrs. Allen was an extremely valued friend and today finds her still enjoying the coveted friendship of many despite her long absence.

THE SOPHOMORE DANCING PARTY

As was predicted in these columns the Sophomore dancing party of last Friday evening was an unbounded success and was one of the largest gatherings of the season. The decorations showed exceptional artistry and consisted of an overhead canopy of fish nets in which the long graceful branches of weeping willow were interwoven. The walls and stage of the hall were banked in greenery, thus representing a forest setting with small pines in the foreground. An arrangement of silver stars above the pines gave the effect of a skyline. Particularly was this carried out on the stage where a moon and stars were apparently peeping through the green of many tree tops. The class color of pink was manifested in streamers and blossoming shrubs. The refreshment booth had its pagoda-shaped roof fashioned of pink bunting with walls of greenery and blossoms. The charming young people of the class received many compliments over the success of their effort. They can always be relied upon to do their share in providing pleasure for others as the success of their efforts last Friday evening so amply testifies.

and particularly to the young man complimented. He has always been a most faithful and efficient member of the organization. He is returning to his post of duty tomorrow.

CULTUS CLUB ENJOYS MUSICAL PROGRAM

One of the most delightful musical and literary gatherings took place last Tuesday evening when the Cultus Club met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Philip Joseph. Mrs. Edgar Dutton, club president, presided and directed the excellent program which was opened by two guitar solos played with exquisite tonal effect by Miss Minnie Hart. A book review was given by Mrs. Keith Eversole who, upon this occasion, chose Peter B. Kyne's "The Three Godfathers." It is a curious coincidence that the writer was at one time a resident of Sherwood valley in this county. He has but recently returned from France with the "Grizzlies" and the story chosen for the review was from the Saturday Evening Post of recent date. It was given in a thoroughly pleasing manner by Mrs. Eversole who is a reader of considerable talent. Song selections by Mlle. Joseph of San Francisco added to the wealth of entertainment. Her numbers were "I Have Wept A'Dreaming," by Georges Hue and "War" by Gertrude Ross. Mlle. Joseph's singing is always an event of great musical importance and her appearance on this occasion was an unexpected pleasure to the club members. Another and equally unexpected pleasure was the piano solo of Frances Joseph, small daughter of the household, who played a selection arranged for the left hand by Lisha Lynn. It was entitled "Night Song." The living room of the Joseph home was beautifully decorated in white spireas while the dining room, where refreshments were served, was gay in French buttercups charmingly arranged. A large number of club members were present at the noteworthy meeting.

THE WATSONVILLE CONVENTION

Mesdames Louis Hildreth, J. L. Brown and F. E. Rea of the Saturday Afternoon Club and Mrs. L. H. Foster of the Kosmos Club were local delegates to the recent convention of the federated clubs of the San Francisco district held at Watsonville three days last week. The sessions were held in the club house of the Watsonville Woman's Club with Dr. Mariana Bertols presiding. The convention opened with patriotic singing. Attention to some of the bills before the legislature in the interests of education occupied a few moments. Club activities were reported by the delegates and hearty applause given to each. These reports occupied a certain amount of time each day of the convention. Mrs. Foster of the Kosmos Club reported that the club had never refused a needy child a pair of shoes or stockings and was warmly applauded for this philantrophy. Americanization was the theme of every session. Miss H. G. Eddy of the U. C. College of Agriculture gave a wonderful report on Social Agency in which she paid glowing tribute to the farm advisors, home demonstrators and county libraries and dwelt on this as one of the great steps in the Americanization plans. The afternoon was given over to reports of club presidents and district chairmen. A feature of all the sessions was the fine musical numbers provided by the Watsonville club women. The most important thing brought out in the various addresses and reports was the fact that during the past year most of the club women have devoted their time to distinctly war activities. The evening session was devoted to a reception which was marked by the presence of state president, Mrs. Herbert Cable. Other noted women present were Mrs. Edward Dexter Knight, Mrs. James Wilkins, Mrs. Aaron Schloss and Mrs. Annie Little Barry. Three busy sessions were on the Friday program including an address by Professor Lee Emerson Bassett of Stanford University on "The Art of Reading." He concluded his address by the reading of Kipling's "Boots, Boots, Boots," which was done in effective and impressive manner. Professor Edward H. Krehbiel of Stanford University spoke in behalf of the League of Nations. Mrs. E. D. Knight gave a splendid talk on War Savings, putting life and meaning into the formal subject. A two act comedy by the Cap and Bells Club provided a bit of humor to the afternoon session.

A thirty minute address on "Facing Life Squarely" was given by Annie Little Barry, who was given a rising vote of thanks for her splendid effort. Mrs. Josephine Martin of the Examiner spoke for the women of the press and was greeted by a storm of applause. The evening session was devoted to a dramatic reading "The Riders of the Sea." by Mrs. Ward H. Hulen and a stereopticon lecture by Professor Helway of the U. C. on the evolution of scenery on the California coast. These meetings were held in the auditorium of the Watsonville high school. The Saturday morning session was devoted to reports of club presidents including the report of the Saturday Afternoon Club of this city by Mrs. Louis Hildreth. She was enthusiastically applauded. Dress reform was advocated by Mrs. Richmond of the Papyrus Club of San Francisco .She implored the women to show modesty in their dress and much applause greeted her sentiments. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mariana Bertols of San Francisco; First vice-President, Miss Jennie Partridge of San Francisco; second vice-President Mrs. Finley Cook of Berkeley; third vice-President, Mrs. C. E. Webber of St. Helena; Secretary, Mrs. H. M. Tenny of Watsonville; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Anita Wales of San Francisco; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Herbert Whitton of Santa Rosa; Auditor, Mrs. G. A. Penniman of Santa Clara.

A memorial service was conducted for the late Mrs. Alice Fredericks, deceased president of the district, and a memorial tree will be planted in the Watsonville public park in her honor. In the afternoon the delegates enjoyed a forty-mile drive through the blossoming apple orchards of the Pajaro Valley and later tea was served in the club house and regretful farewells spoken. It was one of the most successful and inspirational conventions in the history of seventeen years of conventions and was marked by an utter lack of political bickering. 7000 club women were represented in the convention which takes in 14 counties.

UKIAH'S WILD FLOWER SHOW

The long-anticipated and much-looked-forward to wild flower show at thep ublic library last Monday afternoon and evening attracted more than eight hundred visitors, all of whom expressed their delight in no uncertain terms. More than fifty varieties of wild flowers were shown and brightest-hued and sweetest-scented members of the flora of this vicinity were artistically arranged with less-favored members of their species into mounds and pyramids and tiers until the whole library was one glow of color and perfume. There was no monotony in the arrangement and grouping. The first impression was a patriotic one. From the stairway one could see, as one entered, a three tier arrangement of red colombine, white snow-drops and blue brodiaea surmounted by a silken American flag and bordered with a huge bow of red, white and blue. On the right was a California table all in yellow masses of poppies arranged in pyramid form and topped by wild grasses. They were the most brilliant and perfect specimens that could be found. Other massed effects of remarkable beauty were the display of the Erythronium, commonly called "Easter Lillies" with their base of wild maiden-hair ferns, the display of the Les Grillon Club of Ukiah, which was awarded first prize for the most artistic exhibit, the tasteful corner display of Claire Ellege with its mossy base filled with growing, blossoming plants. This was awarded second prize for best collective display. One display which attracted universal attention was that of the Forsythe school, Mrs. Lucia Hopkins, teacher. It contained 42 varieties of wild flowers gracefully arranged in Indian baskets with hand decorated cards and was awarded first prize for the best collective display. The second prize in this series went to the children of the E. H. Benson family who had on exhibition 27 varieties of wild flowers. Third prizes were awarded to the Oakley children who showed 19 varieties and to Althea Lynch who had a pretty display of single varieties arranged in brown Japanese baskets. Alice Ruth Young was given special mention for a pretty and novel arrangement. Others who exhibited included George Seward, Roberta Hutson, Margaret Davis, Dorothy Evans, Althea Lynch, Clair Elledge, Frank Earl Hillingas, Ruth Van Allen, and many others whose names could not be learned. Mrs. Burrey, who launched the effort for the flower show was ably assisted in the arrangement of the flowers by Miss Garsey, Mrs. Ted Young, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Elledge, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Toles, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Dohring, Mrs. LeRoy, Mrs. Cottrell and others. The Fort Bragg librarian sent three huge packing cases of wild flowers from that vicinity that were rare and beautiful. That particular display was arranged in the north-east corner of the room and attracted marked interest all day. It included wild orchids, violets, pansies, skunk lilies and other varieties totally unknown in this vicinity. A distinguished and greatly interested group of visitors included State Librarian and Mrs. M. J. Ferguson and Mrs. Alice Whitlock, librarian of Contra Costa library. The firm of Morris & LeRoy greatly contributed to the pleasure of the day by the loan of a fine grafonola which was played continuously during the hours of the show.

WHIST CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Russell Ford was hostess to thew hist club on last Friday afternoon at her cozy home in Evans street. The living room where three tables of whist werep layed was suffused in a glow of yellow blossoms with roses and wild mustard predominating. Favors at cards were won by Mrs. Earl Ford and Mrs. Victor McGarvey. Twelve guests gathered about the luncheon table that was suggestive of the Easter season in its decorative scheme of wild lillies and maiden-hair ferns. Half hidden among the flowers were tiny yellow chickens while the favors were small baskets of Easter confections.

A CHILDREN'S EASTER PARTY

Dainty little Miss Charlotte McGarvey will be an Easter week hostess this afternoon when twenty of her small friends will be asked to share the Easter gladness with her. The fun will include a hunt for cunningly hidden eggs for which prizes of baskets of candy will be awarded. This half of the delightful afternoon's program will be held at the Robert McGarvey home with Mrs. McGarvey assisting the young hostess very materially. Later the small guests will follow Miss Charlotte to the home of Mrs. Charlotte McGarvey in south Oak street where the refreshments will be served from a table that is a thing of beauty and delight. The central decoration is a miniature rabbit-drawn vehicle, driven by a yellow chick and filled with many-hued eggs. Down the center of the table are miniature duck ponds with fluffy, downy ducks swimming about in the make-believe water which is bordered by sprays of flowering yellow baby roses that wind in and out about the favors at each place which are cunning little nests filled with eggs of candy. The little guests will be served by Mrs. Charlotte McGarvey, Mrs. Robert McGarvey and Mrs. Belle Day. They will include Robert Taylor and Virginia McGarvey, Gertrude and Marvin Ford, Stanley and Joseph Rea, Ernest and Henrietta Ford, Billie White, Cora Jane McGarvey, Charlotte McGarvey, James Cleland, Doris and Bobbie Ford, Katherine Held, Helen Hildreth, Lucille Ford, Pauline LaPorte, Jack Wallace, Wakefield Taylor.

UKIAH 25 AND 15 YEARS AGO

April 27, 1894.

The continuous drought of the past six weeks in California has been causing alarm all over the state. However rain began falling last Wednesday and the downpour is general in all parts of California.

An interesting case before the Supreme court last week was that in which Bartlett brothers of this valley were the plaintiffs and the Mendocino asylum the defendants. The suit involved certain water rights which the plaintiffs claimed had been diverted from their land by the defendants. The case was decided in favor of the plaintiffs. Messrs. J. A. Cooper, W. P. Thomas and J. Q. White appeared as legal council for the plaintiffs.

BORN—In Redwood Valley, April 11, 1894, to Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Toney, a son.

BORN—In Santa Ana, April 20, 1894, to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hildreth, a son.

The Mendocino high school building will be formally dedicated, with appropriate ceremonies, tomorrow night.

The rainfall for the season, as reported by Dr. George McCowen, is 45.09 inches.

On last Saturday morning Walter Shinn shot and fatally wounded A. N. Ussher on the Finney ranch, 12 miles from Ukiah, on the Boonville road. The trouble arose over the settlement of a small contract and Shinn claims self defense. The wounded man died the same evening of the shooting. He was aged 44 years and leaves a wife and two children. He was a good citizen. Shinn, who is from Lake county, is aged 21 years.

APRIL 22, 1904.

MARRIED—In Potter Valley, last Saturday, Miss Laura Eddy and John Burgess, both of Potter Valley.

MARRIED—In Ukiah, last Tuesday, Wm. Longmore and Mrs. L. M. Henry, both of Largo. Rev. G. B. D. Stewart was the officiating clergyman.

The bid of S. M. Orr for the construction of the new primary building in Ukiah, for which bonds have already been issued and sold, was accepted by the board of trustees at $7600.

In the recent field meet between teams representing Stanford and Berkeley universities, two of our Ukiah boys showed up well. Fred Holman won first place in the half mile and the mile runs and Arthur Henley was a close second in the broad jump.

DEMAND IMPROVING FOR COUNTY LANDS

Country lands, including bearing orchards, vineyards, general farming propositions and suburban homes with land attached are finding a steadier sale now than at any time during the past few years.

The desire of the people in general seems to be to reside on some sort of producing agricultural property where living is cheaper in a good many respects and conditions better in some ways than in cities, consequently dealers in country properties are doing a considerable business.

The office of J. A. Waldteufel reports the following recent sales:

Messrs. Cordts and Matthews of San Francisco have purchased from A. Eckdahl the old Cardinal place in Redwood Valley consisting of 45 acres. This is all out in young fruit mostly Bartlett pears. The price paid was $6,000.

The A. C. Bowles place north of Ukiah has been transferred to F. E. Swim, formerly of Basin, Wyoming. This consists of 104 acres and sold for $16,000.

To S. S. Henry of Arizona has been sold the Max Popoff place of 40 acres in Potter Valley. It is Mr. Henry's intention to go rather extensively into poultry and also general farming. Thp erice paid for this place was $3,000.

Mr. Gus Torngren of Oakland, purchased 20 acres in Calpella Fruit Land Tract No. 2 for which he paid $1500. Mr. Torngren has started to clear this property and will put the place out to prunes and pears.

A. Brehm has sold to C. Walker of Siskiyou county his 11-acre place in Redwood Valley, $1,500 being the purchase price.

Frank Tuhten, of Santa Barbara, has purchased the 300-acre place at the lower end of Blue Lakes from G. A. Behrnds. This property has 100 acres of lake bottom which Mr. Tuhten intends to put wholly into alfalfa, placing his pumping plant in the lake. Many improvements are to be made on this property and it will eventually be one of the show places of this section. The price paid was $25,000.

Contrary to a report published in the Ukiah Times, the sale of the Russian Colony holdings in Potter Valley by a local agent, has not been consummated as yet and may not be. Negotiations are under way through Waldteufels' office which may result in a transfer but the report heretofore published was premature and unverified, according to Mr. Waldteufel.

FAIRBANKS TO MANAGE FIFTH LOAN CAMPAIGN

The Mendocino county campaign for the Fifth or "Victory" loan will be headed by A. J. Fairbanks, prominent business man of Willits, and chairman of the Mendocino county board of supervisors, according to announcements made this week. W. A. S. Foster, who headed the last loan, was selected to manage this one also, but owing to pressure of private business he was unable to do so. However, Mr. Fairbanks is an energetic and aggressive business man and those who know him have every assurance that he will put this county over the top.

Mendocino county will have to raise $483,750. Ukiah's portion will be $112,500; Fort Bragg's $100,000 and Willits, $60,000.

Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass has announced the dates upon which payments will be required on the notes of the Victory Liberty Loan as follows:

Ten Per cent with application on or before May 10.

Ten per cent on or before July 15.

Twenty per cent on or before August 12.

Twenty per cent on or before September 9.

Twenty per cent on or before October 7.

Twenty per cent on or before November 11, with accrued interest on deferred installments.

Payment in full can be made on May 20, the 10 per cent required with application having been duly paid on or before May 10. Payment can also be completed on any installment date with accrued interest.

T. J. McGIMSEY'S LIFE FAST EBBING AWAY

SANTA ROSA, April 13.—Former Revenue Collector T. J. McGimsey, of Sonoma, is rapidly approaching the shadow land, according to reports from his bedside, and the attending physicians hold out very little hope of his ultimate recovery. Mr. McGimsey has been in poor health for some time and is past the four score mark in number of years of age. For many years Mr. McGimsey was connected with the U. S. Revenue Service in Cloverdale, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, Korbels and other places.

He is a brother of Mrs. Ornbaun of Ornbaun Valley, and she and her sons, Breck and Newton, are with the sufferer, having come down from their home Friday.

The illness of Mr. McGimsey will cause genuine regret among his many friends here and elsewhere.

MRS. GRACE I. YORDI WILL LOSE BIG RANCH

(Santa Rosa Republican.)

Mrs. Grace I. Yordi, a former well known resident of Cloverdale, has filed a voluntary petition in insolvency with the United States district court. The lady is a clerk in a San Francisco store, and gave her address as the Lucerne Apartments. Mrs. Yordi made a statement that she had contracted debts amounting to $18,732.97, and that her assets amounted to about one hundred dollars' worth of wearing apparel, which is exempt under the law.

Mrs. Yordi's immense amount of debt is represented by promissory notes, amply secured by mortgages on her ranch near Cloverdale. The amount of the notes aggregate $12,-628, and there is the sum of $6104 in unsecured claims.

The lady was the wife of Carl A. Yordi of Cloverdale and has been residing in the metropolis for some time past. She was formerly Miss Grace Perrault, member of a well-known San Francisco family.

ERNEST SINCLAIR TO WED APRIL 30TH

FORT BRAGG, April 10.—The following clipping from the "Moncton Times," will be read with interest by the many friends of Captain Ernest Sinclair:

"The engagement of Miss Helen Harris, daughter of the late Mr. C. P. Harris and Mrs. Harris of Moncton, N. B., to Captain Ernest A. Sinclair, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sinclair of Glen Blair, California, has been announced.

The wedding is to take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Claude W. Peters, Garden City, Long Island, on Wednesday, April 30."

The groom-to-be is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sinclair of Glen Blair and is a young man of splendid qualities. For a number of years he has been associated with his father in the operating of the Glen Blair Redwood Company's plant.

Supervisor Reynolds came over from Point Arena last Monday to attend the session of the board.

A. Lovestedt, a well known rancher of the Calpella section, was in Ukiah last Tuesday on a short business trip.

WILLITS NOTES

WILLITS, April 15.—Mrs. Marigold Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vinton, died at Salinas, April 10th, of some kind of stomach trouble. For some time she was unable to eat solid food and just before the end she had hemorrhages. The cause of the illness baffled the doctors and they could not agree on the cause of it.

The deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vinton and was born and raised near Dos Rios. About a year ago her parents moved to Willits so that the small children could have better educational advantages. Last summer the deceased married Mr. Peterson and they left shortly afterwards for Salinas where he was employed as a blacksmith.

The remains were brought to Willits for burial and the funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon.

Last week Frank Barto went insane and he is now presumed to be roaming in the hills north of town. Constable Whitcomb spent several days searching for him but could find no trace of his whereabouts. Last fall Barto had a severe attack of the flu and it affected his mind. He has a wife and two small children.

D. T. Bennitt, owner of the Two Rock ranch, went to Sacramento last week and was admitted to the bar and can now practice in any court in the state. He is a graduate of the law school of the University of Chicago.

A son was born to the wife of Max Haskett, April 12th.

A daughter was born at Fort Bragg April 10, to the wife of Neils Offerson of Willits.

Ralph Youde returned Saturday night from Europe, having been discharged from the army He was in the sanitary corps and received most of his training in England and was sent to France a few days before the war ended.

DEATH OF HARRY AUSER

FORT BRAGG, April 16.—Harry Auser, a former Fort Bragg boy, passed away in San Francisco Saturday night following an operation for stomach and intestinal trouble.

Deceased was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Auser of Littleriver. He leaves a wife, father and mother, two brothers—Jack and Seth—and a sister—Frances, to whom the sympathy of the coast is extended.

FARM ADVISOR GIVES ACCOUNT OF TRIP SOUTH

Monday, March 31.

Rising call at 6:30. Arrived at Court House. Talk on activities of Los Angeles Farm Bureau by Dr. Coit. Meeting was held in farm bureau office to show magnitude of the farm bureau rooms. Dr. Coit has four assistants and lady home demonstrator in his office.

8:30 left Los Angeles for Arcadia passing through San Fernando Valley. Visited Fred Hartsook ranch at Lankershim. Saw cow tester at work. Prof. Crocheron stated that California had 11,576 under test. Los Angeles had 1100 cows on test. Charge being $1.50 per cow. Inspected concrete stave silo. Staves three feet long and two and one-half inches thick tongued and grooved. Silo forty feet high. Inspected Toggenburg milk goats, Holstein cows and pure bred Poland China hogs. One of the directors purchased a pure bred Poland China gilt. 10:00 a. m. arrived at apricot orchard of W. F. Clark at Van Nuys. Attended deciduous pruning demonstration. Demonstration consisted of one plot, one tree unpruned. Plot 2, heavily pruned, using local method. Plot 3, one tree thinned according to University method. Plot 4, one tree thinned according to University method and lightly tipped. 10:45 arrived at Jim Jeffries place. Inspected pure bred Holstein herd and silos. Jim Jeffries has a bull which he refused $35,000 for (King Segis De Pontias). He charges $1000 for his services. Mr. Jeffries used Eureka ensilage ground and is finding splendid success with it.

12:00 m. arrived at "Lucky" Baldwin ranch. Dinner served by Mrs. Baldwin, consisting of local grown products. Beans, sandwiches, meat, coffee, milk, cheese, olives, pie oranges were served. Tepary beans were cooked by home demonstrator. Small bottles of sauce samples were given away. 1:00 p. m. live stock demonstration by Scribner and G. E Gordon. Some of the finest horses in the state. Draft, race, saddle and Arabian breeds were exhibited Arabians contain one less vertebrae than the other breeds. Beautiful saddle and polo horses result as a cross of the Arabian and the thoroughbred. The cross is a very brainy and active horse. Thoroughbred horses are too nervous for ordinary use. Stationed on this ranch is one of the champion race horses from Chicago, 33 years old. Still possesses vital constitution. Inspected milk herd. Two cows were inspected true to dairy type. Talk was given on one cow that gives 21,000 pounds of milk and over 9,000 pounds of butter fat in one year. 3:30 attended a citrus demonstration on lemon ranch of Hart & Barber, North Whittier. Three kinds of wood growth was shown in lemon trees. First fruit wood, second sucker wood, and third intermediate or pollymorphic wood. Best bearing trees are those held down by cutting out all sucker wood growth clinging to the trunks, leaving no buds for the development of new sucker wood. Trees are summer pruned to prevent development of this wood.

Arrived at Inspiration Point for birds-eye view of San Gabriel valley, showing extensive plantings of walnut and citrus. Left for Anaheim. Arrived in Orange county. Treated to Naval oranges by Farm Bureau ladies. Literature and Farm Bureau bulletins also distributed. Arrived at Anaheim. Proceeded to Fullerton high school for dinner. Meeting held in auditorium of high school. Address on co-operation was given by G. Harold Powell. Talk on bud selection by A. J. Shamel. Talk on the activities of the Farm Bureau by the farm advisor. Left Fullerton for Anaheim, night's lodging.

Tuesday, April 1st.

Left for Orange county park, passing through the truck, sugar beet walnut and citrus section of Orange county.

Arrived at Smeltzer, inspected the Farm Bureau artesian well and drainage project. Sportsmen have been influential in legislating for preventing capping of such wells.

Arrived at the walnut orchard of P. T. Adams at Tustin. Attended spraying demonstration conducted by Prof. Ralph Smith. Three pests have bothered walnuts, viz: Blight, walnut aphis, worm similar to codling moth.

The aphis spray is home made consisting of lime, kaolin and black leaf 40. The latter comprises only 2½ per cent of the bulk. All is dried and sprayed as cloud of dust. Looks practical, possible to cover the highest trees.

Arrived lemon heights, treated to lemonade containing grape juice. We were told that Orange county produces $12,000,000 worth of beets annually. That there were fifteen sugar fartories in the state, five of which were in Orange county. Inspected a large orange packing plant at Orange City. Arrived at Orange county park for farm bureau dinner. Were told that the supervisors cooperated in every possible way to make the county Farm Bureau a success. They set aside extra $300 for the dinner to the conference delegates.

1:00 p. m. left for Redlands, 86 miles, passing through a portion of Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino counties. Arrived at Citrus orchard of S. N. McCulloch at Placentia to see effect of bud selection on yield of fruit.

Individual tree records are kept according to numbers, as; 14, 18, 22, painted on bark of tree. 14, plot number; 18, row number; 22 tree number. In these records kept, he found that certain trees produced heavier than others. The percentage being 3½ per cent yielded 7½ boxes; 14 per cent yielded 5 boxes; 57 per cent yielded 3 boxes. Rest considerably less. His bud selection from high yielding trees is already showing marvels in tree yields of newer plantings.

Visited a cover crop and scaley bark demonstration conducted by Dr. Coit. Scaley bark occurs on orange trees only. Three stages occur. First scale or shelling of bark in small patches. Second, trees begin to show lack of thriftiness and slight yellowing of leaves. Third, limbs begin to die out. In the first stage the bark is nicely cut out, and wound painted with Bordeaux paste. Will cure tree. The second stage can be cured in some cases, by scraping out all diseased portion and treating as above. In the third stage nothing can be done. Gummosis is being treated the same way.

6:00 p. m. arrived at San Bernardino for supper. Motored to Redlands Center, meeting in high school. We were told we were in the largest county in the United States. Activities of the farm bureau were given by the farm advisor. Miss Frances told of fly campaign and other work of the lady home demonstrator department. A lively meeting was held. Many visitors present. A sheet was shown, which was circulated among the farmers.

Talk by Dr. Weber on soil humus. Alfalfa hay is worth its value as mineral fertilizer. Humus additional value.

Wednesday, April 2nd.

Left Redlands for Riverside, through fertile section of San Bernardino and Riverside counties. Arrived Hollow Hill Dairy (pure bred Guernsey farm) owned by Editor of New York Herald. Thirty gallons of ice cream made up, but lack of tins prevented serving.

Arrived in Riverside, met by band from Indian school. Talk on farm bureau activities in Riverside county. I didn't hear it. Trip to Mt. Roubidoux for birds'-eye view of citrus area of county, where inspiration was received for the piece "End of a Perfect Day". The piece is now played in the Mission Inn every night. A large cross is stationed on this hill, where Easter services are held each year. The cross is covered with jewels (which were taken from the Tower of Jewels P. P. I. E.) the night before Easter, and search lights played on it furnishing beautiful setting.

Visited Riverside Exposition station to study effect of commercial fertilizer on citrus production.

Plots were arranged with no treatment. Plots with blood fertilizer. Plots with potash fertilizer. Plots with nitrate fertilizer. Plots with barnyard manure, and combination of some of this. These experiments have been carried on for 12 years and up to the end of 5 years spdendid results were obtained, but regression took place from then until the present. Trees treated to nitrate have practically ceased to yield and are small and dying out. Potash not so bad and blood not as bad as for potash. In case of barnyard manure, the trees are normal and healthy and yielding better every year. Where nine pounds of nitrate was used per tree, the soil refuses to take water. 12:00 m. arrived at Fairmont Park for dinner, served by farm bureau.

Arrived at Corona, inspected a community kitchen. Visited co-operative cannery in a desert. Visited a pure bred Hampshire hog ranch. Returned to Riverside Mission Inn. Held meeting after banquet. Songs, speaking and stories enlivened the evening's program. After meeting we were taken through the Inn and shown the curios collected from all corners of the world.

Conference adjourned.

It could not help but be noticed the evidence of the farm bureau in the southern counties. Co-operation everywhere was the keynote to successful agriculture. Southern California is largely artificially built up through co-operative use of water, better farming methods, and better marketing. Opportunities in northern California as even as in the south but nature has made it possible for farmers to make a living without the co-operative aid of organization. Conference plans 1920 in Northern California.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Ukiah Brewing & Ice Co. begs to announce to its patrons that on and after the first day of May, 1919, all sales will be for cash only. This step is necessary on account of the increased cost of the ingredients of its product, the various taxes on the manufactured articles, and the general higher cost of carrying on the business. By doing business on a cash basis, the cost of keeping books and making collections is eliminated, thus enabling the company to sell its goods without an increase in price, which would otherwise be necessary. The customers get the benefit of the change, so we trust to have their co-operation. 28-3t

LAYMAN AND BARTLETT GUESTS AT RECEPTION

One of the very happiest events of the week was the reception given on Monday night in honor of two of our boys, Laurie Layman, recently returned from France, and Wm. Bartlett, from a southern training camp. In response to invitations sent out by Mr. and Mrs. McKesson, about 40 of their friends gathered at their cozy home on Perkins street. After greetings and words of welcome had been exchanged with the gallant young men, the guests were told to banish dull care and forget the world and its cares for awhile—and they did. Appreciative of the fine evening, outside frolics, and childhood games and pranks were enjoyed by the younger set while the older ones were entertained with bright and merry conversation and, in their more serious moments, with this and other war-time reminiscenses. The pretty McKesson home, always dainty and attractive, was a perfect "bower of beauty" on this night and never was the refinement and good taste of theh ostess so plainly in evidence as on this occasion, when it was emphasized to a marked degree in the decorative scheme, which, while there weref lowers in profusion, was of a patriotic nature, and was carried out in the lavish use of the red, white and blue ribbons. The large double parlors, thrown in one, were massed with apple blossoms, while long streamers of the ribbons were caught up from the corners of the table, which had been placed the entire length of the room, and from each guests plate to the chandeliers, and again gracefully restooned in several lengths overhead, forming a canopy of the national colors which was pretty in the extreme, while the patriotic tone was further accentuated by the soft folds of "Old Glory" as it fell in graceful lines above the table. The place cards were miniature flags, and all this, combined with the exquisite taste and delicate beauty of the table appointments, and the glow of the softly-shaded lights, made the refreshment room a veritable "fairy land" and the refreshment hour a particularly happy one. A most beautiful and impressive sight was when as the large assemblage stood around the table and "America" had been sung, the two khaki-clad lads clasped hands across the table, under a canopy of red, of their country floating over them, white, and blue, and with the flag the Rev. Willard Fuller's voice and the hearts and minds of all those present were raised in fervent thanks to the Father of all that these brave young lives had been spared and for their safe return. The spirit of song was in the air and some choice music was rendered, with Mrs. S. Brown at the piano, while a trio of male voices, consisting of Russell Vaughan, Laurie Layman and Lloyd Martin sang thel ate and popular airs. The guests departed at a late hour. The consensus of opinion being that Mr. and Mrs. McKesson were at their best in the role of host and hostess, and that this was indeed "The End of a Perfect Day."
